

A project for the Montana State Catholic Daughters of the Americas:

POOR CLARES Mission:

The Poor Clares of Montana, daughters of St. Clare and St. Francis of Assisi, are called to live the Holy Gospel in the contemporary Church. We are dedicated to a life of contemplative prayer in an enclosed community, dependent of God's providence, providing a place where all are welcome to experience God's presence and peace.

About the Poor Clares:

*Their monastery building provides a setting for sharing their life of prayer with the people of God. Here all are welcome to pray in the chapel to find spiritual nourishment and peace. They have retreat accommodations for individuals who desire time and space for quiet and for prayer. There are also meeting rooms available for Church-related groups.

*Poor Clares all over the world live a:

Life of poverty

Live in a community as sisters

Have a life of prayer

*They support themselves from income for the use of the retreat apartments, the gathering room and other rooms in the public part of the monastery. Donations are made by those seeking spiritual direction and financial support by the general public is always accepted.

For more information on the Poor Clares of Montana, visit their website:
poorclaresmt.org